Section 8 (same as Source of Income)

(1) generally doesn't apply with respect to housing for "older persons"

(2) most statutes provide exceptions for recipients of income derived in an illegal manner

(3) this protection is derived from the definition of "source of income"

(4) certain religious organizations or private clubs are allowed to give members preference; certain owner-occupied units exempt

(5) may not be protected if real property is such that protection would result in unrelated persons of opposite sex using same bath or bedroom facilities

(6) some exceptions apply (in certain owner-occupied units and property owned by a religious organization)

(7) some exceptions apply (in certain owner-occupied units and property owned by a religious organization); documentation of gender status may be required in some situations

(8) some exceptions apply (i.e.: where dwelling is less than 400 sq ft.; if state/federal housing; where regulations restrict occupancy)
