

Request for a Reasonable Accommodation Under the Fair Housing Act and Oregon State Law

Re: Reasonable Modification for my disability

Dear

I am writing to request a reasonable accommodation for my disability.

I live at

in and have lived there since

I am a qualified individual with a disability, as defined by the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. § 3602(h). Our building's rules state:

Because of my disability, I need the following accommodation:

A medical provider has prescribed this accommodation for my disability. I can provide verification from my medical provider upon request.

Please note that under the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. § 3604, it is unlawful discrimination to deny a person with a disability a reasonable accommodation in existing rules, policies, practices, or services if such accommodation may be necessary to afford such person full use and enjoyment of the premises. Please respond to this reasonable modification request within seven (7) days. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
