What does housing discrimination look

You are told housing is not avail-

A landlord refuses to rent to you because your first language is not English.

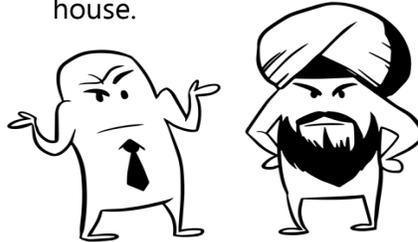

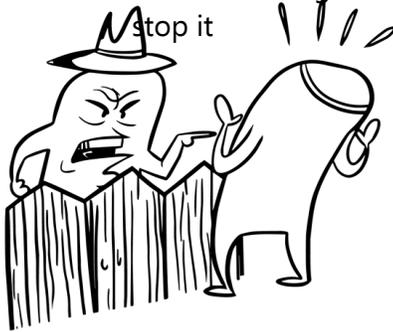

Your landlord refuses or takes longer to make repairs on your apartment, but does it for others who

Your landlord charges a fee for each person living in your house.

Your neighbors harass you because of where you are from, and your landlord does nothing to

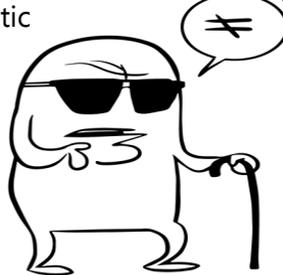

You are asked where you were born when you apply for an apart-

Your landlord asks you to trade sex for rent.

You are treated differently because you have a disability

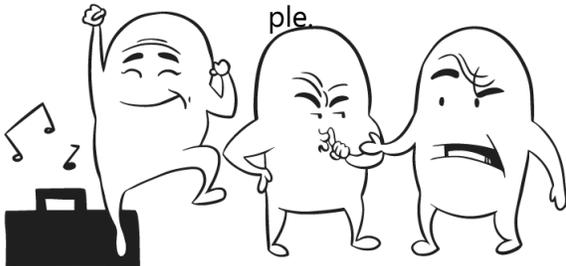

You are told that there are no apartments available for families or that children are not

You are evicted because you have called the police because of domestic violence and neighbors have com-

You are given different rules than other people.

Has this happened to you?

If you think you have faced discrimination, or if you would like more information about your rights, you may call our hotline at 1-800-424-3247 ext. 2, or visit our website at www.fhco.org.
